MEMORANDUM FOR Commanders, NCARNG

SUBJECT: OCS Appointment Deferments and OCS Waivers

1. Reference, National Guard Regulation (NGR) 600-100, Commissioned Officers – Federal Recognition and Related Personnel Actions, Chapter 2, dated 1 October 1996.
2. IAW referenced regulation; the Adjutant General may accept applications for Certificates of Eligibility (NGB Form 89). Certificates of Eligibility are utilized to determine fitness for future appointments or promotion when no position vacancy currently exists.
3. Due to the shortage of Officers at the lowest levels, requests for Appointment Deferment must be submitted at least 120 days prior to graduation from an OCS program. Bonus entitlement is not normally justification to defer appointment.
4. Due to the time constraints of the Accelerated OCS program, any Soldier who requires a waiver for commissioning will not be authorized to attend the Accelerated OCS program.
5. POC for this office is MAJ McCormick, Chief Officer Procurement, CML (919) 664-6503.
